

Zonta International District 4

Advancing the Status of Women Worldwide

Young Women in Public Affairs Award

Zonta International recognizes the international need for increased participation of women in public affairs at all levels. The Young Women in Public Affairs Award recognizes young women for their demonstrated leadership skills and commitment to public service and civic causes and encourages them to continue their participation in public and political life.

Achieve Zonta's Goals - Some Good Reasons to Get Involved

- Advance the status of women by supporting higher education
- Promote Zonta to young women, their peers, their parents, and the local community
- District 4 gives one award of $1,000 US contributed by the Zonta International Foundation
- Zonta International gives 5 awards of $3,000 US each

Application Process

Applicants must apply to the Zonta club nearest to them by the club deadline. The Zonta Club winner proceeds to the District level where one applicant is chosen to be the District winner. The District candidate is submitted to Zonta International for consideration of the Zonta International award.

Eligibility

The award honours young women ages 16 to 19 who demonstrate a commitment to leadership in public policy, government and volunteer organizations.

Where to get Application Forms

The current year form must be downloaded from the Zonta International website www.zonta.org.
