Experience It! The Azores

The Azores, or Açores (Portuguese for goshawks), are the ultimate islands. Truly isolated, they rest some 900 miles west of Lisbon and 2,110 miles east of New York City. Their volcanic origins created mountains and valleys covered with rich and varied vegetation, lakes resting in ancient craters, hot springs, fumaroles and thermal fountains. Travelers experience spring-like temperatures year-round. Warmer weather sometimes lasts until late December, just right for exploring seaside villages, bustling harbors, and cities overflowing with architectural treasures. The islands offer churches, palaces and museums - all framed by a breathtaking landscape. Walk along stunning mountainsides, cool off in natural volcanic swimming pools or enjoy lush gardens. The island of St. Michael - perfect for those seeking nature and adventure - is known for its flowering vegetation and extraordinary lakes. St. Michael also features Europe's only pineapple and tea plantations. Join us and discover the natural wonders of these amazing islands.

Ponta Delgada, Azores

Whale - Dolphin Watching

$85 USD

Welcome to a unique experience in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean! The isolated archipelago of the Azores has a reputation for being one of the best whale watching destinations in the world. The islands are permanent or temporary home to more than a quarter of all known cetacean species. In addition to the Sperm Whale, other migrating species include Baleen whales, among them the Blue Whale, especially during early spring to late summer, as well as Pilot Whales, False Killer whales and even Killer Whales. The Azores are also ideal to spot many different dolphin species including resident dolphins such as the Short-beaked Common Dolphin, the Common Bottlenose Dolphin and Risso's dolphin as well as yearly summer guests like the Atlantic Spotted Dolphin and the Striped Dolphin. Your amazing journey begins with a briefing where your Nature Guide explains the historical background of whale hunting and its reconversion to whale watching. Learn about the biodiversity of the islands, species, and measures of security on board the ship. Please Note: Depending upon the number of passengers booked, this option will operate utilizing a Catamaran or Zodiacs. Duration: Approximately 3 hours. Please note a minimum of 12 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Cascais

Dinner at Cozinha Velha Restaurant (The Old Kitchen), Queluz Palace

$85 USD

Queluz National Palace is one of Portugal's most sumptuous palaces. Built in 1747, the palace was long used as the summer residence for royals and is the country's finest example of Rococo architecture. Nowadays, this palace is used by the Portuguese State as a residence for government and state chiefs that visit Portugal. Located in one of the palace's wings is Cozinha Velha Restaurant; once the kitchen of the palace, it still has the charm of yesteryear. Cozinha Velha is an endearing place, built in grand style with the original rectangular layout and structures. Today, it is considered one of Portugal's finest restaurants with a colorful dining room favored by those seeking a gourmet dinner in a romantic setting. The dining room is like a small chapel, with high stone arches, a free-standing fireplace, marble columns and a 20-ft marble table laden with baskets of fruit and vases of flowers. Enjoy a delightful 3 course dinner prepared according to the most genuine recipes of Portuguese traditional cuisine, complete with wine, coffee or tea and mineral water. Duration: Approximately 3 hours. Please note a minimum of 25 passengers is required. Transportation is included.

Lisbon

Lisbon by Night (Fado & Folklore Dances Dinner Show)

$90 USD

Fado: the perfect blend of voice and guitar. A shawl, a guitar, a voice and heartfelt emotion---these are the ingredients of Fado (UNESCO's World's Heritage Cultural Patrimony), the celebrated form of world music that captures what it is to be Portuguese. Fado is the song that harnesses the Portuguese soul. The word Fado comes from the Latin fatum, which means fate or destiny. It is a style of music that is all about deep feelings: the disappointments of love, the ups and downs of life, the sadness and longing felt for someone who has gone away, the everyday life of the neighborhood and the conquests of the local inhabitants. No one knows quite how Fado first came into being, but to this day Portugal's traditional music remains at the very heart of the country's culture. At Timpanas, one of Lisbon's most popular Fado and Folklore restaurant in Portugal, professional performers entertain you while you enjoy a wonderful, three course, candlelit dinner of regional Portuguese cuisine and wine. A fado dinner and show is an experience that you simply have to include when visiting Portugal. Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Please note a minimum of 25 passengers is required. Transportation is included.
