

Jane M. Klansman Women in Business Scholarship

Nominee: Katie Chen

Nominating Club: Zonta Club of Kitchener-Waterloo

Field of Study: Business

School: Western University Ivey Business School

Katie Chen is currently in her 3rd year of study, pursuing a dual degree in Honours Psychology and Honours Business Administration, with the Ivey Business School, University of Western Ontario. In her 1st two years, she achieved Dean's Honours List, and her first semester in her 3rd year, she placed in the top 1 percentile within a class of 600 students.

Katie has volunteered as a Student Lecturer with the Ivey Africa Institute, developing African-based cases and planning a teaching trip to Nairobi, Kenya in the summer of 2018. She has received a Team Leadership Award as she worked as a consultant, developing a $2M fundraising strategy for the London Cross Cultural Learner Centre. She has been involved in VP Projects, a Pre-Business Student Network helping to facilitate 40 student jobs through the Internship Program. She is a principal Cellist with the Western Symphony Orchestra. Upon graduation, Katie intends to pursue a career in management consulting, as she is passionate in behavioural economics.