

Best Practices for Following the Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women Campaign on Social Media
25 November – 10 December

Social media will play a significant role in Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women's presence during the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence.

Before 25 November

There are three steps you can take right now, prior to the campaign kicking off on 25 November:

1. Follow Zonta International and Zonta Says NO on social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) and like, comment and share the messages already being posted.
2. Visit and bookmark www.zontasaysno.com.
3. Focus on the main issue for this year's Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women campaign.

Here is how you can spread awareness about the campaign on your personal, club, area and district social network profiles:

- Change your profile photo and cover photo to an image selected from the Zonta Says NO image library [Dropbox image library]
- Use the hashtags:
 - #ZontaSaysNO
 - #EndChildMarriage
 - #16Days

Starting 24 November Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women campaign

Here are two key ways you can participate in the Zonta Says NO to Violence Against Women campaign:

1. Be a part of making our important message going viral. Each day, starting 24 November, Zonta International will release a new graphic that highlights important facts illustrate the need to end violence against women and girls. When you like, comment and share these original posts, the message of Zonta says NO to violence against women and child marriage will be seen as a highly engaged content and will stay relevant on social news feeds.

- 2. Share how you are saying NO. Share with the rest of the world what your club, area and district are doing this campaign year through your local service and advocacy actions by filling out the Share Your Story form on zonta.org. These actions will be shared on www.zontasaysno.com and on our Twitter network.

Please note that these graphics will not be shared prior to them appearing on Zonta International's social media so as to better position Zonta international's message in the social media networks.
